The 59th Annual Convocation of the XLRI School of Business and Management will be held on March 21 at the Tata Auditorium in Jamshedpur.

In all, 526 students will receive certificates and medals. They include 300 students of post graduate programmes BM and HRM; 112 students of PGDM (general management); three students of fellowship programmes from Jamshedpur Campus; 63 others of PGDM-BM (part time) and 23 students of the 2012-15 batch of executive PGP course from Dubai Campus.

This year, the first batch of XLRI's Global MBA programme launched in partnership with Weatherhead School of Management, USA, and School of Economics & Management of Tongji University Shanghai, China, will also receive their graduation certificates.

Twenty Indian students of the 2013-15 batch of the global MBA programme will also be awarded certificates and medals.

This year, XLRI would confer the prestigious Sir Jehangir Ghandy Medal for Industrial and Social Peace to Mallika Srinivasan, chairman & CEO, TAFE (Tractors and Farm Equipment Limited). She will also deliver the convocation address.

The Sir Jehangir Ghandy Medal was instituted by XLRI in 1966, in honour of the former chairman of the board of governors, XLRI.

"A convocation is an important milestone in the life of every student and faculty. It is the culmination of all the efforts put in by an individual during their time at the campus. I congratulate all the students," said Father E Abraham, director, XLRI.

This year, XLRI would also present the Honorary Fellow Award to Rev. Fr Romuald D'Souza, former director of XLRI, Jamshedpur.
